I am not alone. Australia is still to experience the mass killing by Muslims on home soil that have occurred in Europe - even Angela Merkel has seen the light.

An Essential Research poll released on Wednesday found 49 per cent of Australians support a ban on Muslim immigration, including 60 per cent of Coalition voters, 40 per cent of Labor voters and 34 per cent of Greens voters.

[I assume that the person who sends me all these emails thinks that the passage from Matthew was meant to be read as if it said "unless your neighbour is a Muslim". It is amazing to see a passage like this being deployed to provoke hatred]

If Concentration Camps were accepted by Australians when Billy Hughes was Prime Minister, they will be accepted again.

Unfortunately more Australians will need to be killed at the hand of the Muslim before they are reintroduced.

30 September 2016

If Billy Hughes saw concentration camps as an acceptable solution to the wisdom of Cicero - I'm in.

This is never reported in the leftist media.

I do not want my daughters to suffer the fate of many young Swedish women.

12 October 2016

You no doubt are hoping for Hillary to win so that more Muslims can invade the USA

16 October 2016

Subject: Why there must be a ban on Muslim immigration and refugees

Our former Prime Minister's {Billy Hughes} solution - Concentration Camps

19 October 2016

Even the idiot left in Germany are now waking up to the reality of allowing Muslim vermin into their country.

20 October 2016

Islam is not a bona fide religion - it is a political ideology of word domination by force and violence which aims to replace democracy.

22 October 2016

What is wrong with Concentration Camps? They were good enough for a former Australian Prime Minister - Billy Hughes.

It is fantastic that off-shore Concentration Camps have been established to protect Australia from the Muslim Invasion.

More should be established on the Mainland to house Muslims that have been allowed into Australia and who pose a threat to the safety of other Australians.

Cicero would have fully supported Concentration Camps to protect the safety of the people

23 October 2016

I have no problem if off-shore detention centres are "concentration camps" - keeps the rest of the Muslims from trying to get in.

28 October 2016

When the police say that a fire bombing of a bus has no link to Muslim terrorism should we believe the police?

2 November 2016

Nothing wrong with immigration as such - it is who the government allows in.

This is why people like myself vote for One Nation

3 November 2016

Do you agree that Concentration Camps will soon be re-established in Europe so as to protect European citizens from these tribal third world invaders?

5 November 2016

How many of these so called "refugees" are Muslims who will repay our stupidity by killing us or our children?

Hope The Donald wins on Tuesday.

6 November 2016

Only a few decades ago its was standard operating procedure to strafe would be invaders.

What ever happened to this eminently sensible policy?

7 November 2016

Subject: The Tony Abbott Solution

No doubt you consider my proposal to strafe boat loads of welfare parasites as a bit extreme in this age of Political Correctness.

However having the bleeding hearts running a "taxi service" for these parasites is now coming under pressure.

7 November 2016

My daughter works the night shift at MacDonald's.

That makes her a possible target for the Muslim filth that bleeding heart politicians have allowed into Australia as "refugees".

They are "refugees" because they have ruined their own country and now these same "refugees" are hell bent of ruining Australia while they get welfare payments to do it.

Expect to see the vote for One Nation to increase
